

Scottish Gallery Rifle and Pistol Championships

The inaugural Scottish Gallery Rifle and Pistol Championship will be held over two venue dates. Commencing on the 5th July at the JSPC Colmsliehill range where a series of short events will be held and concluding with 1500 events at Drums Links the home of Aberdeen Full Bore Gun Club on the 2nd August. The Championship for Rifle will be held concurrently with a shorter Championship for Long Barrelled Revolver and Pistol. This will be a registered event and entrance open to all.

Scottish Gallery Rifle Champion for Small bore and Centre fire Rifle

Classifications. This competition is a registered event and scores submitted to the NRA. The Gallery Rifle Ranking Tables will include the 1500 event.

Competitors entering both Standard and Classic matches must indicate to the match director prior to the match commencing which score (standard or classic) they require to be carried forward for their aggregate score. No differential will be made between Iron and Optic (Open class) revolver or pistol. Centre Fire may include any pistol calibre lever action rifle. Lever release rifles are not included due to predicted low entrance, we will look at that again next year

There will be a prize giving ceremony held during the Gallery Rifle Nationals held at Bisley on the Sat 29th of August, venue to be agreed. Two title awards will be made:

1. Scottish Gallery Rifle Champion awarded to the highest scoring (rifle) competitor, aggregate score of all eight centre fire and small bore rifle events. No separate classification awards will be made.
2. Scottish Gallery Pistol Champion, highest aggregate score of all Pistol and revolver events.
